

Proposed Changes to the Wording of Two Clauses in the Constitution of DSBA (SCIO)

The original wording of each clause is displayed in black ink; the proposed change to the wording is displayed in blue ink.

12 Any individual who has given many years of outstanding service to the organisation may be proposed at an Annual General Meeting for election as an Honorary Life Member. If the proposal is approved by at least two-thirds of the voting members present, then such a member will be entitled to the full privileges of membership for life without the payment of any further subscription.

12 Any member who has made an outstanding service to the organisation may, by a decision of 'The Board', be proposed at an Annual General Meeting for election as an Honorary Life Member. If the proposal is approved by at least two-thirds of the voting members present, then such a member will be entitled to the full privileges of membership for life without the payment of any further subscription.

17 Members shall require to pay an annual membership subscription; unless and until otherwise determined by the members, the amount of the annual membership subscription shall be determined, by way of a resolution, at the preceding year's annual general meeting.

17 Members shall require to pay an annual membership subscription. The amount of the annual membership subscription shall be determined by a decision of 'The Board' and intimated to the membership on or before 1st September each year.
